

3 hours free consulting to help you achieve NZFAP Plus

ANZCO Foods and Rural Consulting Group are offering you up to 3 hours free consulting to help you achieve NZFAP Plus Silver or Gold accreditation.

How it works

Let Valerie know by 25 February 2024 that you'd like to take up this offer and we'll connect you with Rural Consulting Group.

Rural Consulting Group will then set up a video conference or phone call with you to review the NZFAP Plus standard and highlight any areas where additional information is needed to meet the requirements.

We recommend you provide Rural Consulting Group with your self-assessment report and any relevant documentation in advance so they can prepare for the call.

Rural Consulting Group will then provide you with a clear plan and next steps, as well as any estimated costs if you would like any further support.

Once you're ready to get accredited, request the audit via ANZCO Foods' Senior Quality Assurance Advisor Valerie Walpot: Valerie.Walpot@anzcofoods.com

What is in it for me?

- A clear plan and an indication of what else, if anything, is involved in becoming NZFAP Plus accredited
- Once you have passed the audit and are Silver or Gold certified ANZCO Foods provides:
